

Happy Administrative Professionals Day!

Administrative Professionals Day was originally created in 1952 by the International Association of Administrative Professionals.

Celebrated on the Wednesday of Administrative Professionals Week - the last full week in April - it's a day set aside for honoring those wonderful dedicated people who do so much to keep businesses running at peak efficiency.