

Safety Works

While working in hot environments, consume 4 cups of water per hour (32 ounces). Begin consuming water before you begin your work in order to replace the water you will lose through sweat.