

Safety Works

If you are injured on the job, first aid treatment will be available from your supervisor; however, if you feel that you require medical treatment, you will be directed to an FCEOC designated physician. An emergency room or private physician should not be consulted for treatment of a work-related injury except in extreme emergencies ONLY.